Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Our main achievements this year were continuing to provide low-cost activities so our community can attend without financial strain. The kitchen is an amazing transformation, and we renewed the lights in the main hall to led lights. The play park is due to start being built in January 2026, this will be a great asset to families and children in the local and wider community. We bought a bouncy castle so we can offer complete party packages at an affordable cost.
