APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period	We have listened to the financial report from the treasurer abd we seem to be getting over the stumbling block of poor finance to now having a strong Bank balance. This has been done through grants, fundraising and donations. Having paid off debts from the past. We have also improved the overall facilitites we now have a poly tunnel this has been a great asset and has given us produce to use in our café, and plants which have been shared in the local community. We also renovated our vcafe and kitchen and toilets, to improve the member experience we have also started a replacement of our lighting to lower our carbon footprint something we intent to continue during the subsequent year,
