Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document	Sandwick Carnegie Hall is a charitable association, recognised as a charity with effect from 27 February 1933. The hall is administered in accordance with the terms of the constitution.
Trustee recruitment and appointment	Trustees are appointed, reappointed and removed in accordance with the association's constitution.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	The purpose of the charity is to provide a venue for the local community, catering for both young and old. To hold events such as public meetings, social events, exhibitions, group meetings, and provide facilities in the interest of social welfare for recreation, leisure with the objects of improving the conditions of life of the inhabitants of the village and further.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	The main activities are to provide a varied programme including Arts and Crafts, Social, Musical and Sporting Events. Secure the establishment, maintenance and management of the building for activities promoted by the association in furtherance of its objects. In the year to 31 December 2025 the charity received income of £10484 from hall activities and this combined with the other income provided the necessary funds towards the club's operational costs and support the provision of the association's main activities. In the year to 31.12.25 the charity received a refund from Scottish Power.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period	Main activities of the Carnegie Hall during 2025 were to continue to provide a safe, warm and comfortable venue for various activities/groups, including local dance groups, knitting workshops etc. In the precious years upgrades to the hall included the retention of the Traditional Stage facility and including the use of modern technology in LED lighting and Sound Systems, Stage Curtains including backdrop, travellers, side tabs and front main curtains, audience chairs and window blackout blinds. Improving the ambience, comfort and experience for the Audience and giving performers as setting which is flexible for all arts, music and drama. The heavy curtains and blackout blinds provide extra insulation which in turn will reduce Energy usage and help towards Scotland's Net Zero ambitions.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	All funds raised by or on behalf of the charity shall be applied to further the objects of the association and support the charitable activities.
Details of any deficit
