Report on Church Activities and Spiritual Programmes

1. Church Venue and Worship Schedule

St. Gregorios Indian Orthodox Church, Glasgow, conducts its worship services at the following venue:

St. John's Evangelical Church

21 Swinton Road

Baillieston, Glasgow

G69 6DS, Scotland

The church conducts Holy Qurbana (Holy Mass) on the second and fourth Sundays of every month, from 8:30 am to 1:30 pm.

In addition to the regular worship services, the church organises various spiritual, educational, and community activities to strengthen the faith and fellowship of its members, particularly children, young people, and mothers.

2. Sunday School

The Sunday School plays an important role in the spiritual and religious education of children. It aims to help children learn about the Holy Bible, the teachings of Jesus Christ, Orthodox Christian traditions, and the faith of the Malankara Orthodox Syrian Church.

Sunday School classes are conducted through a combination of offline and online sessions. Classes are held in person on Sundays when the church conducts Holy Qurbana, while online classes are arranged during the other weeks. This blended approach ensures continuity in children's religious education.

In addition, the church organises Orthodox Vacation Bible School (OVBS) programmes every year during school holidays. These programmes provide children with opportunities to deepen their biblical knowledge, strengthen their faith, and participate in spiritual and educational activities.

3. Orthodox Christian Youth Movement (OCYM)

The Orthodox Christian Youth Movement (OCYM) is an important part of the church's activities. Youth meetings are conducted after Holy Qurbana on church Sundays.

The OCYM provides young people with opportunities for spiritual growth, Christian fellowship, leadership development, and active participation in church activities. It encourages young members to understand and practise Christian values while contributing positively to the church and the wider community.

4. Marth Mariam Vanitha Samajam (MMVS)

The Marth Mariam Vanitha Samajam (MMVS), the women's fellowship of the church, conducts its meetings after Holy Qurbana on church Sundays.

The meetings provide opportunities for women to come together in prayer, fellowship, spiritual discussions, and community engagement. The MMVS encourages women to grow in faith, support one another, and contribute to the spiritual and social life of the church.

5. Conclusion

St. Gregorios Indian Orthodox Church, Glasgow, is committed to promoting Orthodox Christian faith, spiritual development, and community fellowship through its regular worship services and various church activities.

Through Sunday School, Orthodox Vacation Bible School, OCYM, and MMVS, the church supports the spiritual development of children, young people, and women. These activities help preserve Orthodox Christian traditions, strengthen relationships among church members, and encourage active participation in the life of the church.

The church remains dedicated to nurturing faith, promoting Christian values, and building a united and spiritually enriched community in Glasgow.
