APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period	In the past few years, a great number of people in Hong Kong with BNO status moved to the UK. As a result, ECCC has experienced a significant increase in the congregation. The regular attendees of our church now number about 100. ECCC accommodates Christians who speaks Cantonese as their first language. With the increase in the congregation, there has been a need to set up of different fellowship groups. These cater for the spiritual needs of people from different age groups in the congregation. We have children's Sunday school for primary school children, a fellowship for secondary-school students, a fellowship for university and college students, a young professional fellowship, a fellowship for parents and a fellowship for the elderly. To support the work of our church, we recruited two additional pastors in the past year. Pastor Gavin Mak started his employment in September 2025. He supports our church's work for youths of secondary-school age and their parents. Pastor Caleb Chiu started his employment in January 2026. He supports our church's work for children (primary-school age and lower and their parents.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	Our Church has a surplus of £29840 for the year 2025-2026. The surplus will be reserved for the employment of pastoral staff members in the year 2026-2027, in order to serve the needs of the growing Church congregation.
