Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	The IJFC aim to allow the opportunity for people in the Ross-Shire area to be involved in football. Opportunities are available for all school age children from p1 to U19's to attend coaching sessions on a weekly basis throughout the school term. In addition to this the young people are given the chance to play in competitions and league games. Individuals are invited to attend irrespective of sex, race or religion and are given the opportunity to learn football skills from trained coaches. Parents and committee members actively get involved in the running of the club, help during events & fundraising and any other tasks where assistance is required. Coaches are developed and trained to ensure that the lessons are fun and challenging while teaching key football skills.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	Football Coaching sessions (various sessions throughout the week split into class/ age based groups) Participation in local leagues Competition entry at numerous events Actively promoting individuals to senior clubs Coaching Training to ensure Coaches are fully qualified and have the ability to manage groups of young people while proving a high quality coaching experience Community Building – the IJFC boasts a huge support network of parents, community members and the Senior Invergordon Football Club. Jointly they help out in the running of coaching sessions, support the young people during events, fundraise, offer support and help when running events in Invergordon and help in the day to day running of the Club.
