Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document	Organisation type: Charitable company incorporated 04 December 2013; Standard registration The Charity is governed by its Articles of Association, which set out its charitable objectives, governance arrangements, the powers and responsibilities of its trustees, and the procedures for their appointment and retirement. The charity is regulated by the Charity Commission for England and Wales and is registered with Companies House.
Trustee recruitment and appointment	The Trustees are responsible for the overall management and administration of the charity. New trustees are appointed in accordance with the Articles of Association, taking into consideration the skills, experience and commitment required to support the charity's objectives. Trustees serve in a voluntary capacity and make decisions collectively in accordance with the charity's governing document.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	The charity's principal purposes are: Promoting and funding research into cancer in children and young people; Making donations and grants to organisations undertaking this work; Funding projects of other charities involved in supporting cancer initiatives; Supporting research into the causes, symptoms & pathology & treatment of cancers; Informing parents & carers in the causes, symptoms and treatment of cancers in children and young people.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	During the reporting period, the charity pursued its charitable objectives primarily through grant-making and financial support for organisations working to improve the health and wellbeing of children and young people affected by cancer. The charity made three donations towards the fundraising appeal for the new Children's Cancer Centre at Great Ormond Street Hospital in London, supporting the initiative intended to improve specialist facilities and care for children and young people with cancer.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period	During the reporting period, the charity continued to pursue its charitable objectives by making three charitable donations totalling £15,000 during the financial year in support of the fundraising appeal for the development of the new Children's Cancer Centre at Great Ormond Street Hospital in London. The fundraising appeal is led by Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity (GOSH Charity) and aim to support the development of specialist facilities for children and young people affected by cancer. Through these donations, the charity contributed to an initiative intended to improve facilities for paediatric cancer treatment and care. The trustees consider that these donations were consistent with the charity's charitable objectives and contributed towards its intended public benefit.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The trustees aim to manage the charity's financial resources prudently and to ensure that sufficient funds are available to meet its ongoing obligations and support its charitable objectives. The charity's reserves policy is reviewed in light of anticipated income, admin expenses and planned charitable donations. The trustees seek to ensure that available funds are applied effectively towards the charity's objectives while maintaining sufficient financial resources to meet foreseeable commitments.
Details of any deficit	The charity did not incur a deficit during the reporting period.
Donated facilities and services (if any)	The charity did not receive any donated facilities or professional services during the reporting period. The trustees provided their time and services voluntarily and received no remuneration for their work during the reporting period.
