Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document	The charity is governed by a constitution document. This details the requirements on the trustees for governing the charity, the recruitment of members and trustees (the board) and the quorums required for board meetings and the AGM.
Trustee recruitment and appointment	The maximum number of trustees set out in the constitution is 7 and the minimum number is 3. The charity currently has 4 trustees who fulfil the roles of Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary & Treasurer and thus form the Board. These posts become vacant each June at the charity's AGM at which the members present propose and vote for the trustees who fulfil these roles on the board.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	The purpose of the charity is as custodian of Alloway Village Hall, Alloway, South Ayrshire to provide a venue for recreation use for the local community. The building is a Grade 2 listed building dating from the 1850's. It was originally built as the school in Alloway village but was converted to a public hall around 1900.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	The charity trustees and committee meet approximately 4 times a year to review maintenance requirements and property improvements for Alloway Village Hall. The committee also reviews how the various community used for which the hall is used for and has overall financial responsibility for the day to day running of the hall.
