Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, Constitution of Muslim Welfare House Scotland and registered with OSCR dated September 2022 (SC052040).

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The existing Board of Trustees is responsible for the recruitment of new Trustees. The appointment process also includes taking account of the recommendations and views of community leaders. This approach ensures that Trustees are respected by the community and foster good relations between the Mosque and the people of the local community.

In seeking new Trustees, Muslim Welfare House seeks to identify people who regularly attend events and functions organised by Muslim Welfare House and are willing to volunteer to help broader community work.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To provide best practice social, educational and training centres sensitive and complimentary to cultural diversity, geared to fulfilling the needs of marginalised and ethnic communities in line with our dedication to serving the community across Scotland.

The organisation's purposes are:

1 Relieving need among Muslims and Non Muslims. The relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage

2 The advancement of education among Muslim by the provision of advice, grants accommodation and other material assistance to those in need of such assistance and the provision of libraries and other educational facilities

3 The provision of facilities in the interests of Social Welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation.

4 The advancement of the faith and religious practices of Islam. The provision of facilities for advancement of religious instruction of Muslims, including Mosques and Madrassahs

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Community Outreach Programs: Throughout the year, we organised various outreach programs aimed at addressing the needs of vulnerable individuals and families. This included clothing donations and support for refugees and asylum seekers.

Educational Initiatives: We continued to offer educational programs and workshops designed to empower members of the community. These initiatives covered a wide range of topics, including language classes, vocational training, and personal development seminars.

Interfaith Dialogue: Muslim Welfare House Scotland actively participated in interfaith dialogue and collaboration with other religious and community organizations. These initiatives helped foster understanding, tolerance, and mutual respect among different faith groups.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The charity's work during the year reflects its continued commitment to supporting communities across Scotland and promoting social wellbeing. Through sustained engagement and community-focused initiatives, the organisation has contributed positively to the lives of individuals and families helping to strengthen inclusion and social cohesion. The following highlights summarise the charity's key achievements during the period.

Community Support and Outreach

- Responding to Community Needs: The charity delivered a range of outreach activities aimed at supporting individuals and families experiencing hardship. These efforts focused on identifying needs at a local level and providing appropriate assistance to those facing social or economic challenges.

- Provision of Practical Support: Through the coordination of clothing distributions and the provision of essential items, the charity helped alleviate immediate pressures faced by people experiencing financial difficulty. These initiatives ensured that individuals and families had access to basic necessities during times of need.

- Assistance to Vulnerable and Displaced Individuals: Targeted support was offered to refugees, asylum seekers, and other vulnerable members of the community. This included guidance, signposting to relevant services, and personalised assistance to help individuals settle, access support networks, and navigate unfamiliar systems. Such interventions played an important role in promoting stability and independence.

Community Engagement and Interfaith Cooperation

- Fostering Dialogue and Understanding: The charity remained committed to building positive relationships across faiths and communities by participating in interfaith discussions and collaborative initiatives. These activities encouraged open dialogue and mutual understanding among diverse groups.

- Encouraging Respect and Inclusion: Through educational sessions, shared community events, and awareness activities, the charity worked to challenge misconceptions and promote respect between people of different backgrounds, beliefs, and cultures.

- Building Stronger Communities: By working in partnership with local organisations and community groups, the charity supported activities that brought people together, strengthened community ties, and encouraged collective participation in social and charitable causes.

Overall, these achievements demonstrate the charity's ongoing role in supporting vulnerable individuals while promoting unity, understanding, and cooperation within the wider community. Its efforts continue to contribute towards building a more inclusive, compassionate, and resilient society.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Muslim Welfare House Scotland aims to ensure sufficient funds are available in the future to meet obligations in emergencies and to ensure that operations are not affected due to any absence of funds. Due to the tireless work of our volunteers, we did not incur any expenses nor did we receive any income during the financial year.
