Structure & Management

Constitution

The Charity is a Scottish Charitable Organisation. It was registered on 10th December 2013 the constitution remains unchanged from that submitted to OSCR.

Appointment of Trustees

The management of the Association shall be in the hands of the officers of the Trust and the committee of four members.

Election of trustees and committee members are carried out at the AGM which is held, no later than the 31st March annually.

Charitable Purpose and Objectives

The objectives of the Association are the advancement of heritage, citizenship, and community development through the raising of funding for the provision of a suitable memorial to the servicemen & women of Armadale & the district who have given their lives in the service of their country and to recognise all who have served in the armed forces. To be able to provide the information and stories associated with them for future generations.

Although the association is still small in number, new members have come on board and interest continues to rise.

Activities

The Association continues to raise funds and awareness for the charity by various activities, including merchandise that promotes our charity.

The community continue to show great support for the association, coming together in great numbers to join in the remembrance events.

The Association continue in their support of Poppy Scotland's annual appeal.

Additional work to enhance and maintain the memorial and its surroundings continue to be the case in the coming year 2025/26

George Wilson

Chairman

Financial Review

The main source of funding remains through merchandise and public donations, along with support from some of the local organisations and business community.
