Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The Gail Wilson Memorial Trust is an Educational Charity, established under a Deed of Trust 00/33941, registered with the Registers of Scotland on 26th September 2000. This deed sets out our aims and administration arrangements.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

Our purpose is to make available bursaries to students who have been pupils of Galashiels Academy, who anticipate, or are already experiencing financial hardship during their course of study at further education, but whose potential is such that he or she is thought worthy of and likely to benefit from such further education.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

A total of £3,400 was given out to seven recipients.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

As per summary of main activities above

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

At any one time we try to hold in reserve up to three years' worth of funds for bursaries (Approx. £6,000), so we may hopefully ride out any financial storms occurring and thus affecting our investments. The trustees normally invest any surplus funds on the advice of our Independent Financial Advisor, who investigates possible areas to bring in some return for us.
