APPENDIX 1

Reference and administration details

Names of all other charity trustees during the period, if any, (for example, those who resigned part way through the financial period)

Name	Dates acted if not for whole year

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document	The Kilbarchan Singers is governed by its constitution which was adopted in October 1999 and last amended on the 13th October 2025. The society was granted charitable status by O.S.C.R. on the 6th February 2003 and is an unincorporated society – Scottish charity number SC 030603.
Trustee recruitment and appointment	The management committee which meets at least four times each year are the trustees of the society. Membership of the committee is open to the general membership. The trustees of the society are a) appointed and/or reappointed by the members at the Annual General Meeting, which is held within four months of the end of the financial year, or b) appointed and/or reappointed by the members at an Extraordinary General Meeting or c) co-opted by the committee in the event of a resignation part way through the financial period.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	The objects of the society are a) to promote, develop and maintain public education and appreciation of choral singing in all its aspects, and b) to promote the purposes of such charitable bodies or such other purposes as shall be exclusively charitable as the society may from time to time determine.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	The society meets regularly on Monday evenings from September to May for rehearsals of musical works to be performed at Christmas and in May/June each year. It performs at other times and occasions at the invitation of outside groups who benefit from these performances.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance