Structure, Governance and Management.

The congregation is an unincorporated association constituted by the Memorandum of Constitution dated 23rd August 2007 ("the Constitution"). The congregation is affiliated with Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Britain ("the Society").

New Trustees are selected by the existing Trustees from among congregation members and are duly appointed pursuant to the Constitution.

The affairs of the congregation are managed by the Trustees, who as members of the charity work closely together and meetings are called whenever required but at least three times a year. All major decisions are made by formal resolution at meetings of the congregation members as provided by the Constitution.

The Trustees and other persons engaged in the activities of the congregation have done so on a voluntary, unpaid basis.

Objectives, Activities and Public Benefit.

The Constitution restricts the operation of the congregation and the use of t its assets to religious purposes. It defines the object of the congregation as "the practice and advancement of Christianity founded in the Holy Bible, including the preaching of the good news of God's Kingdom by Jesus Christ, within the Congregation Area and the holding of meetings for public Christian worship". For this purpose, the congregation undertakes the following activities:

Holding and arranging meetings for public religious worship; Teaching of the Bible and the gospel of Christ at these public meetings; Teaching and preaching the gospel to the public within the congregation area; Distribution of Bibles and other religious literature to the public in the congregation area. These meetings are provided and ministry engaged in without charge to the adherents or the general public. Both provide opportunities for fellowship along with the praise and worship of God. They serve to advance religious education among both Christians and the wider public, by providing training in reading, teaching and applying the Bible. Further, through the teaching of principles of Christian living, which includes respect for secular authority, person and property, and the maintenance of personal morality and family values, individuals are aided to change their lives in harmony with such principles. This affords those who follow the teachings of Jesus an improved moral climate, better marital, employer-employee and social relationships and greater happiness and contentment.

The Trustees confirm that they have taken into consideration Charity Commission guidance on public benefit in exercising their powers or duties.

Achievement, Performance and Financial Review.

The congregation is primarily funded by voluntary donations made by congregation members and others, supplemented by bank interest. Throughout the year, such funds have been used to provide facilities for the holding of regular weekly meetings for worship and Bible study. Donations have been made by congregation members toward the cost of circuit assemblies and other conventions held in the year. Funds have been donated to the Society to assist them in carrying out their related religious purposes.

Noteworthy expenses were £4,008.40 for Operation and Maintenance, £2,900.00 for donations to the Worldwide Work and £2550.00 Fees for Sale of the Kingdom Hall.

Noteworthy income of £185,958 came from the Sale of our Kingdom Hall.

The congregation has a consistent income base through donations from congregation members, some of which is by tax effective means. Based on this income, we can plan confidently with relatively small reserves. The policy on reserves is to ensure that we have free reserves on hand not designated for specific purposes or otherwise committed, equivalent to not less than three months working expenditure. At the year end, the free reserves were roughly equivalent to 4 months working expenditure plus a balance of the sale money which will be donated to the world wide work.

These funds are held to finance the future activities of the congregation. There are no funds held subject to restriction on their use or set aside for a particular purpose.
