APPENDIX 1

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document	J-Praise International Church is an unincorporated Scottish Registered Charity, governed by the Management Committee as stipulated in the charities Constitution.
Trustee recruitment and appointment	Trustee members are appointed by Annual General Meeting established by the constitution. An induction programme for any new members takes place during the first week of September at which training and governance support is given to ensure that Trustee members are familiar with the Charity's values, aims and responsibilities in their role as designated trustees of the charity.

Objectives, activities and achievements

Charitable purposes	Our main aim is: • To advance religion through building cooperation between the established and the emerging church communities in Scotland. • To promote equality and diversity in Scottish Churches and communities. • To advance citizenship and community cohesion through promoting talents and empowering disadvantaged groups through arts and music.
Summary of the main activities and achievements in relation to these objects	The main activities of J-Praise International include; Charitable purpose The purpose of J-Praise International is to provide a service that has been attributed to the secular organizations while still meeting its religious objective without imposing it to any of its service users. The difference with J-Praise International and other organizations is that we provide our services to the people of all faiths and no faith but with the love that Christ himself has for the world. Among other purposes, include; • Promoting culture • Advancement of religion • Advancement of education • Promotion of equality and diversity • Advancement of citizenship and community development • Promotion of social and racial integration – social inclusion.

Summary of the main activities and achievements	The main activities through the year included: • Church Services – Church services took place every Sunday and Wednesday. • Youth ministry- Youth ministry organised few outdoor events to get the youth more engaged and involved. • Improved on food bank- We have expanded the offering in our food and managed to feed more people this year than previous years. • Children ministry- Organised events for Children on regular occasions • We helped young ones and young families through seminar and dinner focusing on relationships and marriage with seasoned resource persons.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	All reserves of J-Praise International are used to support the activities in the community. At the moment the organisation is determined to initiate more community related projects. Therefore, we have started building up our reserve from member's donations which are provided as unrestricted fund.
