Structure, Governance and Management

Constitution

The charity is a Scottish charitable incorporated organization (a SICO). It is governed by its constitution, and the organization was established in 2024.

Appointment of trustees

The structure of the SCIO consists of the Board, who hold monthly meetings, and generally control and supervise the activities of the organisation.

The Board members are recruited from the general membership and appointed to be a Charity Trustee, by way of a majority decision of the Board at a Board meeting.

Objectives and Activities

Charitable Purpose

The purpose of the SCIO are for the benefit of people in Scotland and elsewhere to:-
- prevent or relieve poverty;
- advance education;
- advance religion;
- save lives;
- advance citizenship or community development;
- relieve those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage; and
- promote religious or racial harmony.

Charitable Purposes

The main activities throughout the year included:

1. Sunday Service, Monday Bible Study, Wednesday Service, Thursday Bible Study.
2. Sunday School for children.
3. Distribution of tracts.
4. Held Barbeque.
5. Sale of Books, Hymnals and Calendars
6. Counselling

Activities & Achievements

1. We have been able to bring together the community of Christ and study the Bible.
2. We are educating and helping raise children in the Christian way using the Bible.
3. The organisation has carried out individual and group evangelism in order to spread the word of God by distributing tracts.
4. The organisation has been able to raise some funds, bringing the community together by way of Barbeque, sale of books etc.
5. The church has helped individuals and couples with problems through counselling.

The church is looking to purchase a property so as to be able to carry out more activities, in line with its objectives.

Financial Review

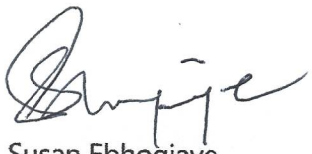

The accounts have been prepared on a Receipts & Payments basis and in accordance with the applicable Accounting Standards, Statement of Recommended Practice, Accounting Reporting by Charities (SORP 2005) and applicable accounting standards and the Charities Acts 1993.

Financial performance

We closed the year with a financial surplus of £97,282.20 and our plan is to continue having a good budget and fundraising strategy in place.
